Curling is a fun Canadian sport for all. Since it is played on ice, which is a hazard, safety and common sense are stressed at all times. Accidents can and do happen. The Canadian Curling Association (CCA) has implemented a rule that all children under the age of 12 are required to wear a helmet that is CSA approved for wear on the ice. Children over the age of 12 are strongly encouraged to wear an approved helmet. All coaches will enforce this rule. Lifting a 44 lb. curling rocks could be involved but not promoted. Curl Canada techniques are being taught to minimise accidents.
